

Northern Tasmania Foodie Itinerary

Day 1 - time to relax

Visit QVMAG - Art Gallery Royal Park

Start your journey with a visit to see the latest exhibition at QVMAG and step into the imagined world of Sam Jinks, one of Australia's most prominent contemporary sculptural artists.

Dill Pickle Club

Take in the cool vibes with classic cocktails and vinyl at the Dill Pickle Club. This fabulous and new listening bar is in the heart of Launceston - it's a great spot to chill, in an atmosphere where music and conversation peacefully co-exist.

Black Cow Bistro

Located in an old Art Deco butcher's shop, Black Cow shares the same culinary pedigree as the widely acclaimed Stillwater. On top of the mouth-watering selection of steaks, Black Cow also offers a variety of fine wines and spirits, seafood appetisers, and delicious side dishes for the full gourmet steak dinner experience!

Junction Arts Festival - Artists At The Table

Day 2 - wine'd your way through the Tamar Valley with these tips for things to do and places to visit.

Vineyards & Wineries

Self drive or take a 'hop on hop off' tour to explore the many wineries and vineyards of the Tamar Valley. The Tamar Valley Wine Route is an iconic visitor attraction in Northern Tasmania, encompassing over thirty vineyards and wineries in one of the world's premium cool climate wine regions.

Select from one of four curated Gourmet Trails on the Gourmaker App for the perfect self-drive itinerary, or leave the planning to the experts at Tamar Valley Wine Tours.

Junction Arts Festival - Arts and Apertifs

Dine at Timbre Kitchen

Powered by a local community of diners, producers & backyard growers, Timbre is a space to eat and drink from constantly evolving menus and drinks lists.

Pick your own at Hillwood Berry Farm

There's nothing quite like the taste of freshly picked berries. And there's no better day out with family and friends than hunting through the berry patches at Hillwood Berry Farm to find the perfect one.

Experience Fork it Farm

A tasty journey from paddock to plate - at Fork it Farm feasts are created for the senses... rustic charm, farmland vistas, exceptional farm produce, stories, and laughter. Whether you visit the boutique farm shop, pull up a log to enjoy a Paddock Picnic or book your spot at a Long Table Feast, one thing is for sure - this may just be the best pork you have had on your fork!

Day 3 - whisky, gin and tasting trails

Western Tiers Distillery

Tastings, distillery tours, dining experiences, shopping and more, there's something for everyone 7-days a week.

Love Lucy Boots Wine Room

Coffee by morning, wine by night. Love Lucy Boots is a boutique Wine Room nestled in an original 1870s cottage in the charming North Tasmanian town of Westbury, celebrating the best of Tassie life—Community, Coffee, Wine, and Hospitality.

Hazelbrae Hazelnuts

Plan a trip to the farm and taste your way through several 'free' samples at the 'Nut Bar' while you watch the beautifully curated production video showing you all the harvest & production processes no matter what time of year you visit.

41° South Tasmania and Georgie's Cafe

Located in native bushland, 41° South Tasmania is a family-owned and run business focused on ecologically sustainable aquaculture, growing salmon in natural conditions without chemicals or antibiotics. Georgie's Café offers a variety of light lunches, including salmon sandwiches, salmon platters and salmon burgers.

Christmas Hills Raspberry Farm Cafe

Whether it's a three-course meal, a glass of Tasmanian wine, a hot breakfast or a takeaway raspberry ice cream, the talented team at the Christmas Hill Raspberry Farm Café use the freshest local ingredients to produce mouth-watering seasonal fare.
